

Nts radio origin

Overview

NTS Radio (also known as NTS Live or simply NTS) is a music radio platform which was founded in 2011 in Hackney, East London by Femi Adeyemi "for an international community of music lovers". The platform prioritizes showcasing niche artists in its radio programming and live events. NTS Radio's. When Femi Adeyemi was made redundant in early 2011 he decided to try his hand at radio, using the little savings he had to turn his nascent Nuts To Soup music blog into an online station. "Honestly, there was nothing out there that highlighted the diversity of my music taste at that time," he. The following is based on the story of "how" and "why" ARRL's National Traffic System (NTS) came to be — an expansion of an article by Phil Sager, WB4FDT, and Bud Hippisley, W2RU, originally published in the OOTC newsletter circa 2018.
